Saves Time and Work

Cooking with gas has greatly reduced the work of housekeeping. It is clean, quick, efficient. Apply a match any hour of the day or night and you have immediately a heat that is intense and even.

There's no "sweating and fussing" when cooking with gas; nor is the kitchen heated to an insufferable degree.

No home should be without "Pacific Service." It's an up-to-date, economical convenience that saves time and money.

Let us explain its possibilities.

According to Expert Rixon of the grand jury the laundry bills for the courthouse for the year 1912 amounted to $134.60. Of course this did not include the soiled linen that appeared in the various cases that were aired in the Superior Court during the past year.

The prosperity of a city is not marked by the wealth of its richest citizens, but by the aggressiveness of its average residents. What accomplishes results is not wealth locked up in the coffers of a bank, but enterprise, applied energy and shrewd foresight which builds for tomorrow.

FOR HUMANITY'S GOOD.

In considering the merits of the present agitation for the passage of a state law providing for a minimum wage for women, in which cause many prominent women of the state are working, it may be interesting to know that the Public Service Corporation of New Jersey, the great transportation monopoly of that state, employing many women on its clerical and accounting staffs, has determined hereafter to pay no girl or woman a less wage than $9 per week. In announcing this determination, it is stated that after a careful investigation the management of the company has determined that a less wage than the management of the company has determined that a less wage than the amount stated is not sufficient to make its women workers the most efficient sort of employees nor to guard them against downfall.

The exemplary effects of this decision will be registered in every section where public opinion is being aroused to phases of the relations of industry and wealth-making that in the past have been too often ignored. Society, in its deep concern for the motherhood and childhood of the future, is busy stirring the consciences of moulders of opinion, of lawmakers and of administrators of affairs as they have not been stirred since the days of the attack on the institution of negro slavery. The response to this appeal is modifying theories of government and is leading business administrators to voluntary concessions such as would have been scoffed at a generation ago.

SEVERAL WOMEN CALLED FOR GRAND JURY SERVICE.

The women are selected from all parts of the county, San Mateo and Burlingame having the largest representation.

Following is the list:

Second township—Carrie A. Jury, Martha E. Billings, Mary P. McLellan, Mary M. Miller, Elizabeth Vickerson, Lelia M. McKoskey, J. H. Hatch, J. E. Casey, William F. Turnbull and W. H. Tseptke.

Third township—Nellie O'Keefe, Mary E. Fletcher, Mary H. Gilbert, Dora Wilson, Augusta Geary, Walter Knight and W. J. Plump.

Fourth township—J. V. Azevedo and John A. Flink.

Fifth township—Edgar M. Shaw and John A. Bell.

Passing of Former Resident.

Mrs. E. D. Jones, who recently died in San Francisco, was known here twenty years ago. She maintained a beautiful home at Woodside, the place where the Folgers now live. Mrs. Jones was a sweet, lovable woman, admired by a wide circle of friends. During her residence at Woodside she was a member of the choir of the Church of the Nativity. She possessed a sweet voice of much volume. Mrs. Jones was the daughter of General Cobb of the U. S. army. She leaves a daughter and son to mourn her.

Entertained Many Friends.

Miss Wollenden, Mrs. L. M. Kirkpatrick and Mrs. Morris Cooper entertained about one hundred of their friends at the Woman's club house in Dingee Park last Friday evening. Dancing and cards were indulged in until a late hour. The occasion was one of the most enjoyable events ever taken place in Redwood City. The hostesses showed cleverness and tact in the manner in which they received the large crowd. Sweet music was rendered by Mullen's Orchestra. P. P. Chamberlain and Mrs. George A. Merrill won the first prizes at the cards and were given substantial gifts.

WATER FRONT PROPERTY TALK BY BUSINESS MEN.

That there is a generally awakened interest in the work of the Board of Trade was shown by an increased attendance at the regular meeting Tuesday evening. City Trustee J. J. Ruhlr applied for and was unanimously elected to membership in the board.

Several communications from neighboring commercial bodies were presented by Secretary Kincaid. One of these, from the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, called attention to the fact that a number of bills which were liable to have an injurious effect upon the commercial industries of the state had been presented to the legislature and requested the Board to appoint a committee to act in conjunction with other commercial organizations in the consideration of such matters of legislation. In response to the request, Major Merrill and R. C. Duncan were named as a committee for the purpose.

Mr. Merrill made an interesting report of his investigations of peat manufacturing propositions, especially with reference to the cider factory. Owing to some complications in the matter of incorporation, it is not probable that the company will begin operations at any location for the present. Mr. Merrill, however, is still of the opinion that the location of the factory may ultimately be secured for this city.

Mr. Merrill also gave some important information as to the progress being made in the development of water front and harbor property and the arrangements being made for the location of various enterprises. At his suggestion the executive committee of the Board of Trade was requested to investigate the possibility of securing a tract of acreage property either within the city limits or close in, which might be held as inducements for factory locations for such enterprises as might not desire to locate as far out as the waterfront.

The suggestion of the erection of a fence at the Broadway bridge was approved by the Board.

Considerable time was devoted to listening to an advertising proposition presented by a representative of a San Francisco publishing house. As the proposition is one which will involve a considerable expense, it was referred to the executive committee with power to act.

LOCAL NEWS NOTES.

Next Tuesday evening at the Club House, Dingee Park, Mrs. C. D. Hayward and Mrs. Frank Wentworth, as hostesses, will entertain. Cards, dancing and refreshments will be the order of the evening. Two prizes will be given. Admission 25 cents.

The services at the Congregational church next Sunday evening at 7:30 will be of a patriotic nature. Roy W. Loud will deliver an address on Abraham Lincoln. The members of the G. A. R. and the W. R. C. are especially invited. At 10 a. m. the sunday school will meet. At 11 the morning service will be held, the topic of the sermon being, "Present Happiness—Does it Pay." The Christian Endeavor Society will meet at 6:30 p. m.

C. Uhlenberg has rented C. Petersen's building on Mound street and will shortly open a grocery store. He has secured the agency for a fine brand of butter made at a creamery in Sonoma county of which his brother, who is an expert, is the manager.

Through the kindness of Mr. Nathanson the Woman's Club will give a benefit at the Bell theatre on the evening of the 19th instant. In addition to the usual reels of pictures there will be vaudeville by local talent and a first class bill will be presented.

Mrs. Al. Rodgers, a sister of Mrs. John Dellmann, died at her home in Oakland on Monday from the effects of a stroke of paralysis received the day before. Mr. and Mrs. John Dellmann, who were here visiting friends, were called to her bedside and remained with her until she died. The deceased was well-known in this city, having visited here often. She leaves a husband, Al Rodgers, the well-known boat builder, to mourn her.

Terence Rooney, the world's famous steeple jack, arrived in Redwood City during the week. He blew in with the chilling winds and is braving some of the loftiest structures in town. He climbed the tall smokestack at the Frank tannery and at present is repairing the big smokestack at the Beeger tannery. Rooney has testimonials from every portion of the known world. He has newspaper clippings telling of his thrilling experiences in repairing the Effel tower in Paris and the cross on the topmost portion of St. Peter's church in Rome.

"Yum, yum" laughingly escaped from Polly's rosebud lips, as she glanced into Gall's attractive confectionery store. "Uncle Josh, you know I've got a sweet tooth, and those home-made candies look so nice, I just can't resist the temptation to go in." Charley here objected, 'cause he knew if Polly got into a confectionery store once there's where she'd likely want to stay. He relented, however, when he remembered that Uncle Josh was 'settlin' all the bills, so in they went, and the girl loaded up on sweetmeats galore, while all three indulged in delicious ice cream and ice cream soda, which Charles declared surpassed even the dreams of an epicurean god. Polly was a splendid judge of sweetmeats, and she indulged in a profuse but nevertheless altogether just compliment to Gall's confections.

Lecture on Mexico.

Friday evening, the 21st instant, there will be an illustrated lecture at the Congregational church by Rev. Robert Whittaker of Los Gatos on "Mexico, the Country, People and Customs." Mr. Whittaker spent a number of years in Mexico and took many photographs for the stereopticon and gained much inside information while there. This, with his great ability as a lecturer, cannot fail to prove of thrilling interest at this time when the eyes of the world are turned upon Mexico in her long struggle with rebellion. The lecture is given in the interest of the Baptist church.

There will be a charge of twenty-five and fifty cents. The lecture begins at 7:45.

Services of Methodist Church.

The young people will do the talking at the evening service at the Methodist church next Sunday at 7:30. The subject will be "Korea From Eight Angles." Brief talks will be given on the people, the customs, the religions, etc., of this country. Special music will be provided. Sunday school at 10 a.m.; preaching 11 a. m. The public is cordially invited to attend all of the services.

Ash Wednesday was observed at St. Peters' Church with a celebration of Holy Communion in the morning at 10:30 and the Litany and Vespers in the evening at 7:30. At the evening service which was attended by a large congregation, the rector spoke on the "Why and How of Lent." The Wednesday evening services will continue throughout Lent, with special talks by visiting clergy.

SUPERVISORS HOLD REGULAR MEETING

The Board of Supervisors met in regular sesson Monday, February 3d there being present Wm. H. Brown, presiding, D. E. Blackburn, Jas. T. Casey, Jos. M. Francis and John MacBain.

Theminutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

Second township—H. C. Caldwell, Belmont.

Second township—Cavalli Bros, La Honda.

Fourth township—John Famucchi, Miramar.

The following applications for liquor licenses were read and will be acted upon a month hence.

First township—Frank Giffia San Bruno; Martin Lamm, Belle Air Park; Jas. Cawley, Salada Beach.

Second township—Albert Swanson, Beresford; Mrs. P. L. Archibald, Belmont.

Third township—Walter Jelich, Woodside.

Third township—Cavalli Bros.,

The petition from the joint improvement clubs of San Bruno asking for additional street lights and also asking the dismissal of the inspector of that district, heretofore received and referred to Casey, was taken up.

Casey reported that his inspector was at work on the matter and would shortly prepare his report as to what lights were needed and their location. Regarding the inspector he said that such an officer was needed. He was granted further time to report on the lights.

A communication was received from the city council of Daly City, asking the board to take action on the council's offer of the Mission road in that city for the State highway.

Action was postponed for the present.

A resolution was received from the Grand Jury recommending that steps be taken to have the Treasurer's office located in the courthouse.

MacBain moved that the matter be laid over indefinitely. The treasurer's salary was $1800 per year and he is compelled to give a bond of $300,000. Considering his meager remuneration it would be unjust to require him to employ a deputy which would be necessary if he were compelled to move his office to the courthouse.

The motion was seconded by Blackburn and carried.

Motorcycle Officer Lowans of the First township reported having made two arrests since his last report, both of which cases were pending.

Mary Flynn of Daly City petitioned the board for State aid in the support of her two half orphan children. On Motion of Casey, seconded by MacBain the applicant was granted the usual allowance of $6.25 for each child.

F. W. Schmidt of the First township applied for state aid for the two half orphan children of his brother. The mother of the children is dead and the father is an inmate of the state asylum at Stockton. On motion of Casey, seconded by Francis, the usual monthly allowance of $6.25 was granted each of the children.

James Downey, the inspector of the Colma Light District rendered a lengthy report of the additional lights that were needed in that district.

At Casey's request the report was returned to him for further consideration, the report to be again submitted at the next meeting.

A communication was received from John O'Farrell, the courthouse gardener, stating that he was about to rebuild his home recently destroyed by fire, and desired to purchase the unused doors and casings stored in the basement of the courthouse.

On motion of Francis, seconded Casey, O'Farrell was directed to make application to MacBain, chairman of the courthouse committee.

District Attorney Swart rendered a written opinion regarding the expenditure of road funds and, quoting the law, instructed the board that up to and including the 1st of January of the fiscal year the board has no power to contract debts that shall exceed 70 percent of the whole year's revenue of any road district, except in emergency cases. Before estimating the funds of the road districts the auditor must deduct 10 per cent from the assessment roll for possible delinquencies.

The District Attorney stated that he was at work on the proceedings relative to the road bond election and would be able to report to the board March 1st.

Surveyor Neuman reported that he was busy preparing estimates of the cost of the roads.

The District Attorney rendered an opinion to the effect that the practice of paying claims for bridge and culvert work out of the General fund was illegal. Claims of this nature must be paid by the road districts in which the work is done, unless it can be shown that such payment would impoverish the road district.

Surveyor Neuman returned the claim of Clark and Henery for work on the Pescadero bridge, submitted to him at the last meeting, with the statement that the charge for engineer's fees included in the claim was unauthorized.

Manager Black of the United Railroads who had been directed to appear at this meeting and show cause why the company's tracks in the First township were not kept in better condition failed to appear. The matter was postponed until afternoon.

MacBain, the chairman of the committee appointed to consider the resolutions presented at the last meeting by the Grand Jury, reported that accompanied by Chairman Brown last Friday he visited the county jail and found that institution in good condition and the prisoners well fed and housed.

It was the opinion of the committee that the resolution calling for an itemized publication of the claims that were passed would cause unnecessary expense and this recommendation was denied on motion of MacBain, seconded by Francis.

No action was taken on the recommendation that the posting of signs on the county road be prohibited.

On motion of Casey, seconded by Francis, the board decided to visit the county farm on the 16th instant and confer with the superintendent regarding certain improvements, among which will be the wind-break recommended by the Grand Jury.

A committee composed of Jas. B. Bullitt and Andrew B. Hill of San Jose, and Isaiah Hartman of Santa Cruz appeared before the board and asked that a committee be appointed to go to Sacramento and lend its moral support toward securing a State appropriation of $100,000 for building a road from Saratoga into the State Redwood Park.

Blackburn moved that such a committee be appointed by the chair, and that in addition to advocating the construction of a road into the park from Santa Clara county the committee advocate the construction of a road from Pescadero into the park at a cost of $10,000, a bill for which is pending before the Legislature. The motion was seconded by Francis and carried.

Alex Heyneman appeared before the board and asked that the hog-ranchers, for whom he was acting as counsel be allowed three months in which to sell out their property at Colma and take their departure. He offered a bond of $500 as an evidence of good faith.

No action was taken by the board

The board adjourned for the noon recess.

Afternoon Session.

The board reconvened at 1:30, all of the members being present.

S. E. Slade presented a petition signed by a number of residents of Menlo Park and vicinity asking that additional street lights be placed in the Menlo Park lighting district as follows: Eight on Atherton avenue; one on Oak Grove avenue; one on Santa Cruz avenue; two in Wortlington Park.

On motion of MacBain, seconded by Francis, the request of the petitioners was granted.

Albert Mansfield, city attorney of Redwood City, appeared before the board and asked its co-operation in certain street work about to be done by the city, including the streets surrounding the county jail.

The matter was referred to the Courthouse committee.

A certified copy of an order of the Superior Court was received directing the board to select 100 citizens from the several townships to serve as trial jurors.

There being no response to the board's order made at the last meeting that a representative of the United Railroads appear and explain why its tracks in the First township are not kept in better condition, it was ordered on motion of Francis, seconded by MacBain, that a citation be issued for the attendance of the manager of the railroads at the next meeting.

Nicholas Martinez, aged 93 years, petitioned for aid from the Indigent fund. On motion of MacBain, seconded by Blackburn, he was granted $8 per month from February 1st.

The clerk asked for information as to what action would be taken re grading claims for bridge and culvert work which had heretofore been paid out of the General fund.

MacBain stated that to pay for such work at this time out of his road fund would impovish his district.

It was decided that in asking for assistance from the General fund the members of the board specify the kind of work to be done and t follow the law.

Edw. F. Fitzpatrick presented a petition signed by over 500 citizens of the county, asking that the tax of $10 for the removal of bodies from the county be reduced to $2.50

Casey and Francis spoke strongly against the petition. Dr. Beattie, the health officer said that the removal of the bodies might spread disease.

Judge Fitzpatrick read a communication from the State Board of Health in which it was assured that the work of removing bodies would be done under the inspection of Dr. Blue, the government medical expert.

The petition was granted on motion of MacBain, seconded by Blackburn, Casey and Francis voting in the negative.

On motion of Blackburn, seconded by MacBain, the burial tax for bodies coming from without the county was raised from $1.00 to $2.50. Casey and Brown voting "no" on this motion.

It was reported to the board that an unknown man had been injured by a train in the Second township during the day and had been removed to a local hospital. The board was requested to grant him temporary care. The matter was referred to MacBain.

It was announced that there were no funds in the Belmont lighting district. It was declared to be the sense of the board, on motion of MacBain, seconded by Brown, that the work of installing the lights be done and when the tax levy is made, provision will be made to pay all claims against the disrtict.

On motion of Blackburn, seconded by MacBain the surveyor was directed to make an examination of the steel bridge at Pescadero and to report on certain culvert work done in Blackburn's district, bills for which are on file.

MacBain was granted permission to replank a portion of the bridge in Portola, jointly owned by this county and Santa Clara, and to construct nine culverts on the Bear Gulch and other roads in his district.

CAPTAIN DAY, PRISON WROKER, GIVES LECTURE

One of the most interesting and profitable lectures ever given here was that delivered in the Methodist church Monday night by Capt. Wm. A. Day, superintendent of the California Prison Commission. Happy Day's sunshine was certainly contageous.

At the request of the principal of the high school, Capt. Day addressed the student assembly on Tuesday morning.

Redwood welcomes good things and hopes to see the Captain again in the future. He shows himself to be a man with a strong personality and exceedingly blessed with the capacity to see the bright side of life even in prison.

BOY SCOUT MOVEMENT.

The promotion of the Boy Scout movement has been recognized as a community enterprise. It is the community's opportunity to reach the boy for good citizenship. Under proper direction, it can be adapted with equally good results to all classes of boys. To give the work such direction, a governing committee, known as the local council, is needed.

The organizing of the local council and the program of its activity as relating to scouting is evidence to the boy who knows the scout program that the council is interested in him—interested not only in his education, by compelling him to attend the public school in order that he may be properly trained for his citizenship duties later on, but interested also in his play, when that play wholesomely and happily contributes, as it does in the scout program, to his physical, mental and moral development.

The local council, through scouting, makes an asset of the boy. It gives him something to do; and teaches him to do things for himself and others; it makes him self reliant, courageous and manly. The local council is proof of the community's interest in the healthful, normal and moral development of its boys.

The committee appointed for that purpose has obtained the consent of the following men of Redwood to serve on the local council. They back the movement as good for the community and give it their support. Others will be added from time to time:

Rev. Father Sullivan, Rev. Mr. Young, Rev. Mr. Crabtree, Rev. Mr. Stevens and Messrs. Williams, Behrens, Fitzpatrick, Walker, Merrill, Sears, Landscheit, Walsh, Littlejohn, Doxsee, Mantz, Cloud, Dr. Cummings and Dr. Ross.

LOCAL SOCIETY ENJOYS LAST DANCE OF SEASON

The Mardi Gras dance given by the ladies of the Episcopal church Tuesday night at the Woman's club was a well-attended and pleasant event. The hall was comfortably filled with maskers, among which were a number of pretty costumes. A prize committee composed of Mrs. George A. Merrill and Messrs. Barrett and Holberton awarded the lady's prize to Mrs. Carl Beeger who wore a pretty Japanese costume, and the gentleman's prize to Henry Beeger, representing a Spanish cavalier. Mrs. Beeger, being one of the patronesses of the dance, asked that another selection be made for the lady's prize and it was awarded to Miss Byrd, whose dress, representing night, was much admired. At 12 o'clock the guests were given dainty refreshments and the party came to an end.

REV. HORN MAKES CONVERTS OF COUNTY JAIL INMATES.

Rev. Frank Horn, the Richmond clergyman who is accused of bigamy was removed to the county jail in this city last Friday. His trial will take place here where it is alleged he committed the offense of which he is charged.

Tuesday Horn was arraigned in Justice Lampkin's court and his bail fixed at $500 cash or bonds of $1000. The accused minister will be defended by C. A. Clark, an attorney of Richmond, and Albert Mansfield.

It is said that since his confinement in the county jail, Horn has inaugurated a series of revival meetings, having for his penitents the following jail inmates:

Frank Walsh, James Drake and Frank Leahy, charged with a burglary in South San Francisco; Chas. Hurlles of San Mateo, a chauffeur, who is serving six months for assault; Ugo Dianda, a horse thief from Halfmoon Bay; Albert Sharp, a negro charged with vagrancy, and John Taylor, Pat O'Rourke and Jake Adams, tramps.

MYSTERY OF THE BAY PARTIALLY CLEARED UP.

A small sloop was found drifting in the boy near the Dumbarton bridge Saturday. The vessel has since been identified as the property of Jacob Engham, a retired sea captain of Oakland who left his home January 25 for a fishing excursion aboard the sloop, according to Mrs. Engram. He was not heard of again until January 30, when he wrote his wife from this city that he was about to go to Port San Jose to attempt to locate a homesite. That he was drowned on that or the following day is the belief of those who have investigated the case.

When the sloop was found Saturday morning it contained nothing but a man's vest. In a pocket were a watch and a hunting license. Through the license the identity of the owner of the sloop was ascertained. It is suppored that Engram fell overboard and was drowned. A search is being made for his body.

SANTA CLARA UNIVERSITY HAS ABLE WEATHER EXPERT

Sometimes we value too lightly the things at hand. Over at the University of Santa Clara, there is a man who has come to be a recognized authority in things meteorological. His opinions and his findings are sought by students over the entire world and his deductions are accepted as late authority by researchers in that line. So well has Father Ricard perfected his weather observations that he is able to forecast almost to exactness the weather changes for the thirty days ahead every month, but so modest is he of his accomplishment, that unless pressed for a report he is content to let it remain merely a part of his work. Those observations are of untold value to the people of the Santa Clara valley and Santa Clara, the town, should make some provision to give them more prominence. A printed bulletin, the first of the month, sent free to the farming districts, would very soon establish the value of Father Ricard's predictions and would at the same time center the farmer's attention in Santa Clara with an interest so vital that the town would very soon feel the effects of such advertising.—Santa Clara Journal.

DANGER FROM GRIPPE

Lies in That Cough and Weak, Worn-out Condition.

Grippe, pleurisy, pneumonia, these are greatly to be feared at this time of the year.

To prevent grippe from being followed by either pleurisy or pneumonia, it is important to drive the last traces of it out of the system quickly.

Our advice is to take Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron preparation without oil, and get your strength and vitality back quickly.

Mrs. A. A. Grabill, of Strasburg, Va. says: "Grippe left me weak, run down and with a severe cough, from which I suffered four years. I tried different remedies, but nothing seemed to do me any good until I took Vinol, from which I received great benefit. My cough is almost entirely gone, and I am strong and well again, and I am glad to recommend Vinol to others who suffer as I did."

Try Vinol with the certainty that if it does not benefit you we will give back your money.

Jolly Uncle Josh

A Real Live Romance in Which Local Business Men are Leading Characters

"Miss Summers—Polly—I—I—er—dare I—" But the speaker took a header over bashfulness, only to hear a sweet

"Yes, Charley."

"Can I aspire to—er—to—that is—"

Again a lapse into silence, followed by an encouraging

"Yes Charley."

"Oh, if I might onley hope to—er—to—"

Another failure of language. It was seemingly a hopeless case, and might have been, only for a demure—

"Charley, I have said 'yes' twice, and if you mean it, I mean it, too, and—"

And to this day that young man will insist that he popped the question.

All this happened away "down east," and it wasen't long before there was a wedding. Not much longer before there came a letter from Polly's Uncle Josh, out here in California, who wrote effusively of his delight at her exhibition of what he called "gift," and he proposed that if the young people would locate at Redwood City he would start them up in life as a wedding gift. Of course they accepted, and were soon bidding their friends adieu.

The first of this week a travel-stained party arrived in Redwood City. Our friend, Uncle Josh, was in charge, and he led the party straitway to a hotel. "The Tremont Hotel," said he, "is a typical American hotel of the best class. I have known E. Larsen, the propietor, for years, and he is mine host after mine own heart, endowed with that delightful intution that a guest feel at home, contended, and in mighty good luck. While the cusine is all that a superior chef and unlimited orders on the market can make it. I have engaged rooms here until our own house is in readiness."

"After breakfast," said the old man, "I am ready to go buy your outfit. To expedite matters I have ordered a carriage from T. M. Flynn, our enterprising livery man." When the handsome carriage with eleborate trappings and prancing horses drew up in front of the hotel, Polly declared it the "finest turnout she had ever seen."

"Yes, Sir'ee" replied Uncle Josh, "the three S's, 'Speed, Safety and Style,' is Flynn's coat of Arms. So, young folks, when you want to take a drive, either for business or pleasure, go to him for a rig every time. His wedding, party and funeral equipments are unsurpassed.

"Where to?" asked the polite driver, as the trio entered the conveyance. Uncle Josh looked askance at his wards.

"Oh, goodness knows; there's lots to buy," remarked Polly. "Then suppose we buy 'lots' first," quoth Charley, without turning a hair. Uncle Josh saw the point and started for Read-Deleau real estate office, remarking on the way: I can always depend on Read-Deleau for bargains in real estate, as they never hold out false lights to induce people to buy. What they tell you about property may be set dow as solid facts. They control a large list of desirable residences, as well as ranch properties, and their judgment on the 'good things' is par excellence."

The party was not long in making a dicker for a nice house in Redwood City and a ranch which Charley considered a splendid investment.

"By the way," remarked Uncle Josh, as they reached the street, "I must run over to the First National Bank and get another check book. Come along with me and get acquainted with L. P. Behrens, the cashier, for of course you will do business with them, and it is always more pleasant to be personally acquainted with the people you do business with. This bank is as solid as the base of the universe and has a strong working capital of $400,000. You will find them ever ready to extend any accommodations compatible with business principles. Your savings deposited there will return you a fair rate of interest. It wouldn't be a bad idea, either, to rent one of the safety boxes, in which to keep your valuables."

"Law sakes," suddenly exclaimed Uncle Josh, "all this trading and shopping around town has caused me to forget one of the greatest essentials to future existence. I have heard it said that newly-married folks could live on love and scenery, but an old man of experience knows better—your table would look slim without bread; it's the 'staff of life,' you know. Polly, you must meet R. F. Paul. His' bread, pies and cakes and nick-nacks are considered by all to be the finest on earth. Remember, Charley, there is no use of your 'ootsy tootsy' bothering herself much about baking, so long as there is a good bakery in town like the Peninsula Bakery. When you give your reception, call on him for the fancy cakes and other good things.

The ball given by Redwood parlor of Native Sons Saturday night was an enjoyable event. The floor was crowded with dancers and the music was excellent. The managers of the dance exerted every effort to add to the pleasure of their numerous guests.

VALUABLE ART DONATION TO GRAMMAR SCHOOL

Mrs. J. E. Hartley has presented the grammar school with a fine large carbon photograph of Raphael's celebrated fresco, "The School of Athens," purchased by her while in Europe recently. "The School of Athens" has been well characterized as "simply the finest, best balanced, and most perfect arrangement of figures that was ever put together by the genius of the Italian revival and the scene in which the action is set is the most splendid display of monumental architecture that was ever made in the 16th century."

Among the figures are Plato, Aristotle, Socrates, Pythagoras, Empedocles, Archimedes and Ptolemy, also the architect Beamanto, who gave Raphael the architectual ideas. Mrs. Hartley has had the picture beautifully and appropriately framed. For the present the picture will be hung in the 8th grade class room, but from time to time it will be transferred to other rooms that all the pupils may profit by it.

Mrs. Hartley's gift is the fourth of the kind that the school has received during the year, indicating the intelligent interest the patrons take in beautifying the school.

For the Housekeeper.

Small Potatoes—Here is a hint which may be of some use when potatoes are small and a bother to peel. Take some very salty water and boil the potatoes in the skins until cooked. Remove the skins and shake around while hot in butter until well coated and bake in a dish in the oven until nicely browned This is much preferable than to waste the small spuds.

A Quickly Prepared Supper Dish—Melt in the oven a quarter of a pound of cheese, a small piece of butter, with a tablespoonful of milk, and pepper to taste. While the cheese is melting, toast two slices of bread and poach two eggs. Butter the toast; when in a thick cream pour the melted cheese over it and place an egg on each slice. Serve hot.

Lady Margaret Pudding—Eight ounces of flour, four ounces of lard, four ounces of castor sugar, one egg, one tablespoonful of baking powder, four drops of lemon essence. Rub lard and flour together, add baking powder, mix with egg and lemon essence. If not stiff enough add a little milk. Grease a basin, put a layer of jam at the bottom, fill with mixture. Steam for two hours.

Beet Salad—This is quite elaborate and very good. Chop the cooked beets a little and arrange on lettuce or water-cress, if you have it. Cover with half a cup of stoned olives cut into good sized pieces, and put a spoonful of stiff mayonnaise on each portion; sprinkle all with either capers or chopped hard-boiled eggs.

Macaroni Croquettes—Chop any cold cooked macaroni, and to two cupfuls of this add half a cup of finely minced boiled ham; wet with white sauce highly flavored with cheese or with tomato sauce.

PIONEER HOMESTEAD MAY BE SUBDIVIDED

Mrs. Selby Asks Superior Court to Confirm Right to Sell Old Ranch Home.

Mrs. Henrietta I. Selby has commenced a friendly suit in the Superior Court against Clara W. Ralston and several other relatives to determine her right to dispose of the Selby ranch, consisting of 460 acres of land at Atherton, and one of the most valuable pieces of property on the Peninsula. Her husband, Thomas H. Selby, died on October 9, 1875, and by the terms of his will, the ranch was left to Mrs. Selby to enjoy the profits, rents, etc. thereof during her life time and after her death it was to be distributed in equal shares to his children. Mrs. Selby was not given the right to sell the property, hence her suit to determine her rights. She alleges that there is little or no income from the land and that it is becoming very valuable and that it would be to the best interest of all to dispose of the property now. She recites that when the Panama canal is completed there will be a big boom on the peninsula and that a good price will be realized from the ranch. Mrs. Selby wants to practically adhere to the terms of the will left by her husband in that she desires that a commissioner be appointed by the court to sell the land in question and the funds realized therefrom to be invested and the income given her during the remainder of her life and at her death said income to be devided in equal amounts to her children and those of her husband and to their issue. After the sale of the propertw she asks that trustees be appointed to take charge of the money and the income therefrom. Mrs. Selby states in her petition that all the defendants consent to the commencement of the action, believing it to be to their best interests. The children mentioned in the will and who are to succeed to Mrs. Selby's right to the property are: Clara W. Ralston, Annie A. Selby, P. W. Selby, Prentiss Selby, Cornelia Selby Kempff, Jennie Selby Atherton and Ralph D. Selby. The latter two are dead. Mrs. Selby is upwards of ninety years of age and is no doubt making this wise move for the best interest of her heirs before she passes away. The Selby ranch has been farmed for years. It is nicely located, and a beautiful spot for home sites. It is possible the property will be subdivided and sold in small parcels. It would find ready sale. The eyes of the home seeker have been on this choice holding for a long time. The Fair Oaks Golf Club is located on the land and here some noted tournaments have taken place.

CITY COUNCIL STUDIES IMPROVEMENT PROBLEM

With the exception of a few matters of purely formal business, the time of the session of the city council last Monday evening was devoted to the discussion of two subjects, neither of which are in any sense new matters of consideration for the trustees. No sooner had the clerk completed the reading of the minutes of the last meeting than the first of these troubles was introduced by the presentation of the resignation of Poundmaster Shine, coupled with a request that no time be lost in securing a successor to take the business of the office off his hands. Evidently the resignation came as a surprise to the trustees, who evidently were well satisfied with the work of Mr. Shine and were in hopes that he was equally well satisfied with his job. In explanation of his desire for relief, the poundmaster explained that under present conditions he found the remuneration far from commensurate with the time and labor demanded. That the compensation was far from liberal was generally admitted by the trustees and suggestions were made that possibly some increase might be temporarily made, but Mr. Shine refused to be convinced that he could decently provide for his family and at the same time do his duty to the position and insisted upon being relieved as soon as possible. In the hopes of being relieved from the difficult task of securing another man for the position, the resignation was referred to the police committee in the hope that some arrangement might be arrived at which would avoid a vacancy at this time, when the services of an active poundmaster seem to be urgently needed.

With this troublesome matter disposed of, the old question of street improvement was again taken up and a considerable time devoted to a canvass of the work necessary in the districts which it is proposed to pave during the coming summer, which practically include all the territory in what is known as the Eastern and Diller additions. The needs of each street in the district were considered, with a view to providing for a practically permanent improvement with the least possible expense in each case. While in the majority of instances it was determined that a pavement similar to that laid last season in what has been known as district 17 was necessary, it was found that in some few sections work of a slightly less expensive character would suffice. To provide for these exceptions, the city attorney was instructed to seggregate the work into several districts in preparing the preliminary legal proceedings.

Upon a report from Street Superintendent Dickey that in numerous instances property owners had failed to comply with requests for the construction of sidewalks and curbs, it was decided to take drastic action to insure full preparation for the street work. That there should be no further delay in this matter, the city attorney was directed to prepare for presentation at the next meeting of the council the necessary resolutions of intention to require the doing of this work under the provisions of the street improvement law of 1911.

As a further measure of preparation for street work, the city engineer was given authority to establish grades for streets where necessary and outline a system of sewer drainage for the district.

The official canvass of the vote of the recent bond election was made, with no change in the results as previously announced, which gave a total of 314 votes in favor of the bonds and but 63 opposing, thus giving far more than the necessary two thirds.

Trustee Hahir renewed his suggestion that a tight fence be erected at the Broadway bridge to conceal the disagreeable sights presented during the low stages of the tide, and this time was insistant that some action be taken. While the trustees admitted that it was essential that something should be done to improve conditions, there was a difference of opinion as to the best course to pursue, some being inclined to the opinion that a regular and systematic use of the flood gates at the bridge would be sufficient remedy. Finally, in default of a solution, the question was referred to the street committee to consult with the Board of Trade.

The city electrician was instructed to prepare plans and estimates of cost of the work of improvement and extension to be done under the new street light bond issue.

MANUAL TRAINING PUPILS MAKE SPLENDID SHOWING

The fourth grade boys of the grammar school, thirty-two in number, took their first lesson in wood work in the new manual training labratory the beginning of this term. Mr. Abell pronounces this the best beginning class he has had. The principal attributes this success to the very thorough training the class had in paper sloyd with Miss Kelting, and the equally thorough work in reed basketry with Mrs. Thorpe.

The manual training work so ably begun in the Redwood City school is rapidly winning recognition throughout the county. Principal Hall recently visited the school and sent his manual training supervisor, Mr Ferguson, to inspect the work in paper sloyd, reed and Indian basketry. This work he introduced at once into the San Mateo schools. This week Miss Burke of Menlo Park visited our school on a similar mission.

It is the intention of Principal Mantz to have the sixth grade given four months instruction in pottery, and the seventh grade five months in metal work next fall. This work will be conducted by Mr. Abell in the manual training labratory.

The visitors to the next exhibit will be interested in the articles of Indian bead work now being made by the girls of the sixth grade. The looms for the bead work were made by the boys in the manual training labratory. The sixth grade girls are also making garments for themselves and learning to use the sewing machine, under Miss Robertson's instruction.

Death of Chester Mero.

Chester H. Mero, a resident of this city for the past four years, passed away unexpectedly at his home on Hamilton street Tuesday night, having been ill but a short time. Mr. Mero drove a hack in town. He was a quiet old gentleman, unassuming, and well liked by all with whom he came in contact. He is survived by his wife and three grown-up children—one daughter and two sons. Deceased was a native of Maine, aged 72 years and 10 months. He was a member of Stanislaus lodge of Odd Fellows.

The funeral was held yesterday under the auspices of Bay View Lodge of Odd Fellows and the body placed on the 12:29 train for Greenlawn cemetery where the interment took place.

Got Too Much Pay.

Diogenese may cease his labors and put away his lantern for the honest man has been found. John Kinnear, who served on the last grand jury, filed his claim for services to the amount of $57.05 and County Clerk Nash forwarded him a warrant for that amount. Yesterday Kinnear returned the warrant with the request that the sum of $7.05 be deducted, he having discovered that he did not attend the last meeting of the inquisitorial body. The matter was taken up with Judge Buck and he made an order directing the clerk to turn $7.05 into the county treasury. Mr. Kinnear is a prosperous farmer of San Gregorio, who has served on numerous grand juries.

Constable Martin Walsh journeyed to La Honda on Thursday to arrest Frank Reardon on a charge of malicious mischief. He killed several chickens belonging to A. L. Ackerman of that place. Reardon appeared before Judge Lampkin on that day and pleaded guilty to the charge. He promised to reimburse Mr. Ackerman for the poultry and the court let him go with a small fine of $5.

President-elect, Woodrow Wilson, has a counterpart or double residing at Atherton. The gentleman having such a distinction is none other than Dr. Cluness, the well-known San Francisco physician. There is such a striking resemblence between the two men that one cannot look at the doctor without being reminded of the New Jeseryan.

Court Menlo, Ancient Order of Foresters held an important meeting Wednesday evening at which several candidates were initiated. Grand Secretary Falconer was present from San Francisco and delivered an able address. The event of the evening was the presentation of a gold watch fob to M. F. Duff in recognition for his twenty years service as secretary of the court. The grand secretary made the presentation speech in which he lauded Mr. Duff for his long and faithful service to the society. Mr Duff, almost overcome with emotion, responded feelingly.

The people of Menlo Park are indebted to Mr. A. G. C. Hahn for his vigilance on their behalf. Whenever anything of moment concerning this locality comes up before the board of supervisors he is always there to look out for our interests. Through his efforts the Middlefield road was included in the roads to be improved from the funds to be raised by the bond issue for which the people will vote on the first of April. Of course Supervisor MacBain is on the alert, always and makes every effort to secure what he can for his constituency but he must have assistance and this he gets from Mr. Hahn, who is a clever debater and a man of unusual intelligence.

The ladies of Trinity Episcopal church waited on Rev. A. B. Chinn in the parlors of the edifice just before services Wednesday morning and presented him with a handsome traveling bag. One of the ladies present delivered an appropriate address. Mr. Chinn was overcome with emotion and for a time found it difficult to speak. He finally composed himself and in a feeling speech showed his appreciation for the valuable gift and for the kind words of commendation delivered by the ladies. Mrs. Chinn was given a costly silver candle abra and Master Austin B. Chinn a handsome silver watch and chain. Mr. Chinn departed for New Orleans on Thursday and expects to be absent in the south for a period of fivemonths. Mrs. Chinn and her young son will take up their residence with Mrs. Chinn's mother, Mrs. Van Wyck of San Francisco Archdeacon Emroy will have charge of Trinity Episcopal church until a regular rector has been appointed to fill the place vacated by Rev. Austin Chinn.

The murder trial of William Wilson aged 60, a rancher near Oricutt, Santa Barbara county, who is accused of beating to death his older brother, Thomas Wilson, aged 72, during the night of October 21st last, was begun at Santa Barbara on Tuesday. In reviewing the case District Attorney Squires said in many details it was like the Biblical story of Cane and Abel.

The body of Thomas Wilson was found onthe porch of the Wilson home early on the morning of October 22d, and a short time later William Wilson went to Oricutt and related a tale of how he had last seen his brother the night before and did not know he was dead until he found him the next morning. He explained that the blood stains on his trousers and coat were received while he was lifting the body from a pool of blood.

The prosecution produced the blood-stained club which it is alleged was used in the killing of Wilson. It had been found in a near-by well. The blood stained trousers of the defendant also were exhibited. During this procedure the accused showed no sign of feeling. Thomas Fitzgerald and P. Lenehen left Monday for Santa Barbara to testify to the good character of Mr. Wilson while residing here.

The following effusion from the facile pen of Leo Duff, a senior at Stanford, appeared in a recent issue of the San Francisco Monitor. It possesses much literary merit and shows the trend of the young man's mind. The lines will be read with interest:—

IGNORANCE.

My laughter has rung down the ages,
mocking, sinister, loud,
I've built up kingdoms of power, exalted
the tyrannous proud,
I've sealed up the lips of the poet,
I've crushed the faith of the saint,
I've wrecked and disabled the good men and true when I blackened their minds with my taint.

Of the Devil, his dearest agent of
Man, his most terrible foe,
I've blocked up the byways of Progress, made justice perverted and slow;
I've palsied the hand of the artist,
and stunted the mind of the seer;
My paramour is dull Despair, I'm father of hideous Fear.

I make sons turn against fathers, I mock at the power of Love, Suicide, Crime and Destruction—these things I am master of.
My home is in squalor and misery, I'm happiest mired in shame;
I'm invited to the House of Sin, for Sin is my Other Name.

I sinned in the Garden of Eden for I am the Serpent Who Spoke
When Man in his weakness had fallen I went back and laughed at my joke.
I spread Disease with its terrors, I've taken Death for my Bride,
I crowned the Christ with a crown of thorns and I pierced His sacred side.

For me men murder each other, for me
red wars are fought,
I laugh aloud at my havoc, I joy in the evil I've wrought.
I dwell in the Utter Darkness, I'm a Creature of Blackest Night,
For I hate and I fear the works of God,
and I can't comprehend the Light.
